Delta Family Resource Centre Announces Launch of Innovative Business Incubator Hub

- What: Launch of AWA Incubator hub in Etobicoke
- When: January 19, 2024, 1 – 2 .pm.
- Where: Delta Family Resource Centre
2141 Kipling Avenue, Unit 208, Etobicoke, ON M9W 4K8
- Why: Delta Family Resource Centre is launching the Delta Family AWA Business Incubator, a business incubator to support Black youth who wish to grow their own businesses. It will be a platform that will nurture local talent, help youth to thrive, empower individuals to materialize their dreams and be part of promoting entrepreneurial growth within Black communities.

Context:

A collaborative effort with partners such as CISCO, NPower the African Canadian Business Network, Delta Family's AWA Business Incubator is designed to provide aspiring young Black entrepreneurs and small business owners with the resources, mentorship, and space necessary to develop and grow their ventures.

Funded by the Province of Ontario, this initiative aligns with Delta Family's commitment to providing opportunities for growth and success within Black communities.

The launch event will feature a ribbon-cutting ceremony with the Minister of Citizenship and Multiculturalism, Hon. Michael D. Ford, remarks from key stakeholders and a tour of the facility. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about the programs and services offered by the incubator and network with like-minded individuals passionate about business and community development.
